

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PERRY JOINS MERCY CHILDREN'S CLINIC AS COMMUNITY RELATIONS SPECIALIST

FRANKLIN, Tenn. – June 1, 2009 – Jessica Perry recently joined Mercy Children's Clinic's development department. As community relations specialist, she manages marketing initiatives, fundraisers and special events, and community relations.

Perry brings eight years of related experience to the Clinic. Most recently, she served as director of marketing and sales for Southern Exposure Magazine. She earned her Bachelor of Science in Marketing and Public Relations from Middle Tennessee State University.

Perry lives in Franklin and has a great passion for our community, serving on the Next Generation Heritage Foundation board, the steering committee for Save the Franklin Theatre, and the 10th Anniversary committee for A Vintage Affair.
